WELCOME

On behalf of Film Life, Inc., it is an honor and a pleasure to welcome you all to the 17th Annual American Black Film Festival in Miami Beach, Florida.

For the last 17 years, we have solidified our reputation as the preeminent film festival for filmmakers and artists of African descent. I am humbled by the generosity of our corporate sponsors and the unwavering support from you, the Festival attendees.

I am incredibly grateful to HBO and Cadillac for their trust, extraordinary support of our mission and for allowing us to be so closely associated with such prestigious brands. To American Airlines, UP (formerly gmc TV), CNN Films, Codeblack Films, Comcast/NBCUniversal, Nickelodeon and Marriott International, our Official Sponsors; American Family Insurance, BET Networks, Grab Media, Nielsen and Stella Artois, our Supporting Sponsors, as well as all our Media, Industry and Promotional Partners; I thank you for your commitment to ABFF and for the opportunity to work with so many wonderful individuals.

Miami has graciously been the host city of the Festival for a decade and I would like to thank this year's host sponsors: Greater Miami Convention & Visitors Bureau (GMCVB), Southeast Overtown/Park West Community Redevelopment Agency, Miami Beach Visitor and Convention Authority (MBVCA), Miami-Dade Chamber of Commerce and Miami-Dade County Tourist Development Council (TDC) for their continued hospitality.

At the start of each Festival, it is always my hope that this event is experiential and interactive for Festival attendees and it provides new opportunities for film enthusiasts to discover and enjoy amazing films, artists and filmmakers.

This year, it is my wish that you participate in every aspect of the Festival – from the dynamic film screenings to the Talk Series to the Master Classes and, of course, our hospitality events. Join us in the celebration of what has become one of the leading events in the industry.

A very special thanks to all of the filmmakers and film enthusiasts who gather in South Beach in the spirit of great filmmaking; you are an elite group and we are honored that you have chosen the ABFF as the place to screen your work. And, as always, a huge thank you to the ABFF staff. You are an outstanding team and this Festival would not be possible were it not for your indefatigable efforts and dedication.

Enjoy the next five days and I look forward to meeting and sharing the ABFF experience with you!

Jeff Friday,
ABFF Founder/CEO, Film Life, Inc

WELCOME

Dear ABFF Participants:

Welcome to Film Life's 17th Annual American Black Film Festival. As founding and premier sponsor of the ABFF, HBO is proud of its continued involvement in celebrating the creative talent in the black film community.

Our long-standing partnership with the ABFF has allowed us to play an integral part in the festival's efforts in support of aspiring actors and filmmakers through competition, workshops and panels, networking opportunities and the sharing of creative resources and visions. This could not be done without the full support and contributions of HBO divisions who send representatives including those attending this year – Film Programming, Documentary, Original Programming, Talent Relations, Marketing, Production, Business Affairs, Human Resources and Corporate Social Responsibility. Also joining us are talent from our award-winning original series.

At this year's festival, HBO is sponsoring several key events where you can meet and greet the HBO staff, including our 16th Annual HBO® Short Film Award competition which has been presented as part of the ABFF's competitive film program since it was established by in 1998.

As in the past, we have invited five filmmakers to the ABFF to vie for the HBO® Short Film Award in a final round of competition, to be held on June 20th at 8:30 p.m. at the Colony Theater. Created to honor the writing and directing talents of young filmmakers, the 2013 competition will culminate with a $10,000 grand prize presented to one winner during the ABFF's Awards presentation on closing night.

In addition, we will be hosting to two events at the Ritz Carlton's Main Hall – the first-ever ABFF Comedy Wings Competition Finals on June 21st at 10:00 pm, and the panel "Examining the Influence of Fashion Trends in Film and Television" on June 22nd at 2:00 pm.

We look forward to seeing you at these and all the other festivities and events at the festival and extend our warmest congratulations to the ABFF and its sponsors on its 17th year of serving, supporting and empowering the black film community. As always, special thanks to Jeff Friday and his staff for creating an influential forum that gives new talent public and industry recognition.

Sincerely,

Dennis Williams
Vice President, Corporate Social Responsibility
HBO

WELCOME

Cadillac could not have been more proud to be a premier sponsor of the 17th Annual American Black Film Festival in Miami Beach, Florida. In our third year supporting the festival, we were delighted once again to partake in such a dynamic celebration of African-American films, artists and filmmakers.

Cadillac is a leading luxury auto brand that is growing globally, driven by an expanding product portfolio featuring dramatic artistry, design and technology. Our partnership with the ABFF underscores our commitment to the finest of arts, as demonstrated by our sponsorship of the Best Narrative Feature Award presented by Spike Lee. Cadillac design embodies contemporary artistic and cultural ideas, themes also embedded in the DNA of the festival.

We hope you took advantage of the opportunity to engage with us at the festival: whether it was hopping on a courtesy Escalade shuttle, relaxing in the Cadillac Lounge daily or taking pictures of the incomparable XTS on the red carpet of "Kevin Hart: Let Me Explain". Our plan was to make sure that every participant knew that Cadillac was honored to be a part of the celebration of this diverse film industry and all it has to offer – and I hope it showed.

My wish is that each and every one of you enjoyed the festival to the fullest. It takes a village to pull together such a tremendous effort and kudos to Jeff Friday and the ABFF staff for all of their arduous work to ensure each festival attendee had a magnificent experience. We trust each and every one of you had a memorable one, upon which you will build in 2014.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Don Butler". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large initial "D" and "B".

Don Butler,
Vice President - Global Cadillac Strategy

GET THE SHOW
ON THE ROAD.

Cadillac is proud to be a sponsor of the 2013 American Black Film Festival. Because whether it's fine films or innovative vehicles, stellar performance only happens by design.

Saturday, June 22

12:30 pm - 3:00 pm

Ritz-Carlton, Miami Beach-Resource Room, 3rd Floor

Due to the digital takeover, people are no longer reading books or newspapers like they used to. Their world view is shaped by what they see on the big and small screen. Now more than ever, we must find a way to enter our audience's world in order to lead them out. The focal point of this workshop will be on striking a balance between social relevance and commercial value in our scripts. In addition, Reggie Rock Bythewood will share thoughts on how to build a career in an industry that may not recognize the urgency of the moment.

Presented in association with the Writer's Guild of America West (WGAW)

How to Pitch a Series

1:30 pm - 3:00 pm

Presented by Nickelodeon
How does a TV series make it to air? Before the script is written, before the actors are cast and the cameras roll, there's the pitch. Find out what really goes into pitching a series that will make TV executives want to green light your project? In this interactive workshop, we'll discuss the essential elements of a TV series pitch, including character development, finding your hook, and creating an engaging universe. Whether you're pitching a Saturday morning cartoon or a primetime comedy, panelists will speak to the ins and outs of TV pitching, from conceiving your idea all the way to taking a pitch meeting with a studio or network.

Guest Speakers: Ron Holsey (award-winning playwright and Emmy-nominated television writer who has developed projects and written for numerous series on PBS kids, Nickelodeon, Nick Jr., Disney Channel and Cartoon Network) and Gabriel Garza (award-nominated Writer on Nickelodeon's THE PENGUINS OF MADAGASCAR and MONSTERS VS.
